Here is some late breaking news - a few minor changes in Saturday's Schedule.

Also a comprehensive report on the U14 Hilton Tour which places "flesh" on the bones of the earlier stats and which rounds out the photos published previously.

Someone sneaked in some photos of Bosch supporters at the end of the 1st Term of 2009 - and some "Old Boys" supporting the Match.

The score cards for the Bosch 1st's matches in the Cape Cricket Week are also attached in a .PDF file format

Match Results

U14A Team Hilton Tour - September 25/28 2009

This tour is all the cricket boys spoke about since the end of the first term and it was with nervous anticipation that we finally arrived. Mr. Lloyd Nel had worked with us tirelessly in the limited time in the run-up to the tour and with Mr. Snijmann barking out the instructions, the boys were sure to put their best foot forward. The Hilton campus is absolutely stunning and all the boys enjoyed their first night before the commencement of the tournament albeit quietly checking out the competition all the time.

Rondebosch versus Westville Boys High School - 25 September 2009

Format: Declaration match

The overcast conditions was going make winning the toss an added advantage, which we subsequently lost. We were put in to bat thereby affording us unlimited number of overs during the course of the game. Getting off to a good start was however dampened with the loss of two early wickets in really trying conditions. Devon van Rensburg remained composed and was joined by Zubayr Hamza. We set about restoring the innings until Devon was unfortunately given out caught behind after the ball appeared to come of his thigh pad. Another quick loss and in stepped Nick le Roux who batted like a Trojan with his skipper to keep the Bosch innings together. A hundred plus partnership culminated in us setting a very competitive score of 218 allowing us about 50 overs to bowl out the opposition.

Our new ball opener, Kay Skovgaard Petersen was the unluckiest of all bowlers with a brilliant spell that had the batsman shaking the heads in disbelief that he did not take their wicket. Statistics do not often reflect the true value of a player, but Kay set about the best bowling spell without the commensurate reward. Jamie Doman also put in a commanding performance with his left arm orthodox bowling that gave very little scoring shots to the batsman. Due to poor light and difficult conditions, the days play came to an end prematurely on 115/3 with Westville holding out for the draw.

Batting

Zubayr Hamza 101

Devon van Rensburg 34

Nick le Roux 28

Bowling

Jamie Doman 11 overs 1wkt/31 runs

Alesio Joemat 3 overs 1 wkt/4 runs

Rondebosch versus St. Alban's College - 26 September 2009

Format: Declaration match

A beautiful day with a possible early advantage for the bowlers, but again we lost the toss and was sent to bat. As with the previous day, a couple of quick wickets set us on the back foot but with Mathew Steele in scintillating form joined by Zubayr Hamza, we set about the re-building phase.

Mathew was unfortunate to hit one back straight at the bowler after scoring a free flowing 42 runs in quick fire time. Kay and Zubayr were now pushing the run rate along nicely scoring at an average of 4 runs per over until Zubayr was caught at deep square leg just after we reached a hundred run partnership. Kay then continued the momentum with Nick le Roux with another fine partnership before being bowled for a magnificent 93 whilst going after the bowlers.

The batsman contribution gave us a commanding total of 259/4 and we had every belief we could win by bowling St. Alban's out in our allotted 50 overs or so.

Like the previous day, a bit of rustiness and some average fielding (better than the previous day though) let us down. Again Kay was unplayable and with Matthew Steele turning the ball beautifully, he was rewarded with 3 fine wickets. St. Alban's ended the day on 184/6. Not quite the result we were hoping for, but with each game we were getting stronger and both days felt as if they were "winning draws".

Batsman

Kay Skovgaard Petersen 93

Zubayr Hamza 58

Matthew Steele 42

Nick le Roux 32* (n.o.)

Bowlers

Matthew Steel 11 overs 47 runs/3 wkts

Kay/Alesio/Zubayr all with 1 wicket

Again the figures do not represent just how well in particular Kay and Alesio had bowled with the ever tight bowling of Jamie Doman.

Rondebosch versus St. John's College 27 September 2009

Format: 50 Over Match

We played St. John's in our first definitive result match on tour and again managed to lose the toss. St. John's however opted to bat first as they had been able to post really good scores batting upfront. Our bowlers were brilliant with some awesome displays of fast bowling by Kay Skovgaard Petersen and Alesio Joemat. Great support was provided by Deklan Wynne who maintained a good line and length with some prodigious swing. Matthew Steele again excelled in the spinning dovetailing nicely with the very tight bowling of Jamie Doman. All our departments fired well and apart from one batsman who was given a second and third opportunity due to a missed catch and bowled off a no-ball, the others fell relatively cheaply.

We ended up restricting St. John's to 189 and were confident we could achieve this total as we had been batting at around 4 and over in our preceding matches. Devon van Rensburg set up the platform with controlled display of power hitting and great stroke play but was unfortunate not to achieve what would have been a deserved ton. He was ably supported his middle order batsman who carried the innings through to a well deserved victory.

Batsman

Devon van Rensburg 86

Zubayr Hamza 66* (n.o).

Bowlers

Matthew Steele 10 overs 25 runs/3 wkts

Kay Skovgaard Petersen 9 overs 35 runs/3 wkts

Alesio Joemat 9 overs 47 runs/2 wkts

Rondebosch versus Hilton College 28 September 2009

Format: 20/20 Match

With the barometer around 8 degrees and an ice cold wind, this was again a toss we wanted to win but lady luck had other ideas. We were now on a record of 4 tosses / 4 tosses lost, something we would gladly do in every match if we could continue our game winning streak. We were put into bat and were almost immediately on the back foot with 2 wickets falling in quick succession. Liam Doman and Zubayr Hamza dug deep in rather treacherous conditions (apart from the wind we also had some driving rain to contend with) to post a respectable score with some of our other middle order batsmen, to post a competitive score of 120/8 after 20 overs.

Our bowling was tight and our fielding in the conditions was finally of a decent standard that we were able to restrict them to 106/3 and thereby another well deserved victory. The statistics do not reflect how well our spinner Jamie Doman bowled or how unlucky Kay, Deklan and particularly Alesio were not to get a couple more wickets.

Batsman

Zubayr Hamza 62

Liam Doman 26

Bowlers

Alesio Joemat 10 runs 4 overs/1 wkt

Deklan Wynne 17 runs 4 overs/1 wkt

Jamie Doman 18 runs 4 overs/1 wkt

What a tour - An absolutely fabulous event that will fondly be remembered by all our players, coaches and parents. A huge thank you to our coach Mr. Nel for all his efforts in making our team battle ready in the limited time he had available and to Mr. Snijmann for his assistance and presence on and off the field for keeping us composed. We started at the beginning of this year from various junior schools and clubs cricket teams, but after three terms at Rondebosch you could see the pride that the boys had in representing the top school in the country -

We are all truly Bosch Boys and what an awesome feeling that is.
