Editorial

While it is not Hockey Season yet, training sessions are hotting up in preparation for the onset of Winter.

In this issue we recognise a fine achievement by Robin Blampied and our thoughts turn to Fund Raising with the announcement of another excellent, and not-to-be-missed Comedy Evening with Alan Committie.

And then a request from the Editor who would like to update the Hockey Herald data base in advance of Hockey season. Please spread the word and if there is a Hockey player who has not received this Hockey Herald, ask him to send an e-mail to Sparkman@Mweb.co.za stating the following to ensure he gets onto the distribution list and receives the Hockey Herald when the season starts.

Congratulations to Robin Blampied

Robin Blampied, a RBHS Grade 12 Hockey Player, leaves for the Final National U17 Hockey Training Camp at the High Performance Centre in Pretoria on the 3 February 2010.

Robin made the squad of 24 boys in mid year 2009, and he has been to three camps and made it through all these rounds.

He will then leave for East London on the 18 February 2010 to play in the AFRICA YOUTH OLYMPIC QUALIFIER (Africa Cup of Nations).

Rondebosch Hockey Herald Congratulates Robin on a truly fine achievement and wishes him every success - may he as always be a ambassador for Bosch Hockey

A truly fine achievement.
