Hockey Notice Board.

All SACS Hockey Matches were Cancelled

All hockey games this week including today's games (Thursday 6/8/2009) have been cancelled jointly by ourselves and SACS. Hopefully with the long weekend boys can get the rest that they need and things return to relative normality next week.

This includes practices for the rest of this week.(Week ending 7/8/2009)

Regards

Rondebosch 1st Team vs. Settlers 1st Team - 1/08/2009

On early Saturday morning the 1st hockey team were up against Settlers High School in a game that we were eager to stamp our authority after a disappointing brother's tournament. We started off with a slow first five minutes but after that we picked up our pace and started to dominate play. We had numerous opportunities at goal but were unable to draw first blood until Lloyd Tanner scored one past the keeper. We went into half-time 1-0 up but eager to score more goals. More opportunity's until Cole Milton scored a drag flick goal off a penalty corner and the score was 2-0 at the end of the game. It was a game that we should have won by a greater margin after many opportunities's and after dominating play.

Rondebosch U16A Team vs. Settlers U16A Team - 31/07/2009

After a tough encounter against Paul Roos and a shaky first season, the team was looking to get on winning terms. Goals were aplenty as Davis and Toefy claimed two apiece and Kabot scoring one goal, ending the game at 5-0 in our favour. The game proved to be a real confidence booster and the team's spirit was high after the game. A number of areas are still needing work, however it was a positive start to the new season. The team prepares for a tough encounter against the English touring side. Good luck boys!

Rondebosch U16A Team vs. Eastbourne Touring Team - 05/08/2009

Our match against Eastbourne was a thriller.

The match started at a very quick pace with Eastbourne distributing the ball very well at the back, however not creating many chances to score. The match was evenly balanced until a lack of concentration by us lead to Eastbourne taking the lead half way through the first half. We tried our best to equalize before halftime but unfortunately we couldn't convert any of our opportunities.

However we started the second half playing outstanding hockey, the best of the season so far. We however struggled to get an equalizer with the Eastbourne goalie pulling of some good saves. We carried on trying and never dropped our spirits and were rewarded when Matthew Davis scored a good goal 10minutes before the end. The last few minutes were tough with Eastbourne throwing attack after attack but our defence stood solid.

The match ended 1-1 which was a great result for us as we missed players to illness as well as some of Eastbournes players being 1st team. Well done guys, best game of the season so far.
