

One of the great wilderness trails of the world!
One of the world's last pieces of unspoilt coastline and Rainforest, found near Plettenberg Bay.

So much in demand that there is a 2 year booking wait.

Hike pristine shoreline, rugged cliff tops, and unspoilt rain-forest.

Carry your own backpack for 5 days and 42 kilometres of rugged challenge: follow the path up steep cliffs above the sea, trek through rain-forest, swim the Blaauwkrantz River. Luxuriate in the sun, the beach and the fire at the overnight huts.

Only place for 9 pupils. Costs approximately R1800 (depending on transport) for 5 days. Apply before 30 July to Mr Smith or Mr Watt . (Hikers must be able to swim and carry a backpack for 14 kilometres per day

